NEW HOME PLANNED BY HEBREW SOCIETY

Foster Association to Decide Soon Whether to Build or Purchase Structure.

Whether the Foster Home Association, formerly the Hebrew Friendly Inn, will purchase a building outright or erect a new home on property to be acquired, will be decided soon, according to plans made last night at a meeting in the Eighth Street Temple.

These officers were elected: Max Fischer, president; D. J. Kaufman and J. L. Teper, vice presidents; H. Doseck, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Goldsmith, financial secretary; Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer, recording secretary. Simon Oppenheimer will manage the new home.

The institution will be centrally located, replacing the one in Sixth street, which has been outgrown. Transient strangers are cared for, and indigent children are sheltered by the association. It is planned to raise $20,000. Of this sum, several thousand dollars have been pledged.

TEDDY BUGS SWARM ABOUT PLAINFIELD

Lanterns Darkened and All But Boldest Persons Driven Indoors.

PLAINFIELD, Conn., May 5.—Millions of "teddy bugs" today cover apple and pear trees and vegetable gardens here and in the surrounding country.

The bugs arrived last night. The hum of their wings brought out the population, but all but the hardiest were driven indoors immediately. Women and children were forced to flee. Lanterns were darkened by swarms of the insects, which are of a kind never before seen about here, though resembling June bugs.

Specimens were sent to Yale today for classification. Meanwhile the name "teddy bug" has hit the popular fancy.

Joseph and Stefan Pachkowski, Russians, have identified the remnants of the clothing of the dead man as having belonged to John Borkow, who accompanied the woman who later posed as Sheleak's wife, from Chicago to Kenosha, more than fifteen months ago.

DIVIDING LINES

It is here, indeed, that CITY and COUNTRY have lost their dividing lines and the ATTRACTIONS of BOTH abound.

Residents here are IN THE CITY with its CONVENIENCES and COMFORTS, and at the same time, owing to the largest park in the city being ACROSS the STREET, enjoy ALL the privileges of the country—WITHOUT its hardships.

The PARK and the large SIDE LAWNS assure plenty of sunshine and pure air.

Not a single stock molding, not an inch of commonplace finish appears in these homes. The work is individual in every detail, this is what gives our homes CHARACTER, and charm, and adds so materially to their value.

That we have succeeded in establishing a NEW standard of "modern improvements" will be conceded by all homeseekers who avail themselves of the opportunity to come and see.

Prices $9,850 (LARGE SIDE LAWNS) and $7,500 (INSIDE HOUSES), 2228 to 2254 Cathedral avenue. It is only because we bought ground long ago that we can do it. Terms, $1,250 and $2,500 cash. $48.50 and $55.00 a month, including ALL interest—LESS than rent.

Take car marked "Rock Creek Bridge" or "Chevy Chase" to CONNECTICUT and CATHEDRAL avenues, walk one square to Rock Creek or Zoo Park.
